

CALL FOR PAPERS

Journal of Eurasian Studies

On March 15, 2009 the GÁBOR BÁLINT DE SZENTKATOLNA SOCIETY of the Mikes International Foundation (established in The Hague in 2001 — http://www.federatio.org/mikes\_int.html) launched an electronic periodical entitled JOURNAL OF EURASIAN STUDIES (<http://www.federatio.org/joes.html>), in order to facilitate and promote the free-spirited research of the Eurasian history, languages, and cultures with a special focus on Asia and the interaction between various European and Asian peoples. The Society was named after Gábor Bálint de Szentkatolna to honor the great Hungarian linguist and scholar.

We intend to cover all fields and disciplines that are relevant to our goal: history, linguistics, politics, philosophy, religion, geostrategy, literature, economics, etc. The current members of the editorial board as well as our authors by nature reflect our stated objectives: they are respected individuals of many professions and are scattered over this great supercontinent, from London through Inner Mongolia to Japan. Enlargement of this network is one of our major goals, including everybody who subscribes to our goals, irrespective where he or she lives and which profession masters.

We would like to encourage everybody to submit to the Editorial Board (joes\_cfp@federatio.org) papers in the aforementioned fields. The papers will be assessed solely on their academic merits, and these are the few prerequisites the authors and their papers should adhere to:

- 🚩 Can be written in any language. However, if written in a language other than English, please provide an English summary of at least A4 length.
- 🚩 A brief (max. 10 sentences long) professional CV in English.

We also welcome comments, reviews, and criticisms on papers published in this journal or in other scholarly publications, so long as they are constructive and are not meant to hurt or insult.

With kind regards,
Editors
